funds, so that, again, I get a better picture of the total change that would be implemented. So Senator Brashear, if you would...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Brashear, would you yield to a question?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Yes, Mr. President. Members of the body, in response to Senator Raikes' question, in LB 46, which has been before you and which you have advanced to Final Reading, we are assessing a $1.00...$1.00 of the filing fee is being earmarked for data collection, in order to put together the community corrections program, data that we need in order to build a database to further supplant and enhance our community corrections effort. That's LB 46. In LB 320, we have earmarked $4.00 of an increase in filing fee for the judicial retirement plan. That takes it from a $1.00 fee that it's been for decades, to a $5.00 fee. And in this...LB 760, we have $2.75 which is earmarked for the Commission on Public Advocacy, which is General Fund budget relieving, and also property tax relieving, because the counties will no longer pay for the services they get from the Commission for Public Advocacy. There's 75 cents earmarked for the Office of Dispute Resolution, which, again, is trying to enhance and improve that performance as it relates to judicial economy, because it relieves caseload within the courts. And there is $1.00 for judicial continuing legal education and judicial training, for both...for judges and for probation officers, as it will be related to the changes we're making in the judicial system, including community corrections. Is that responsive, Senator Raikes? And I cannot give you each court individually, because it...the different courts have fees at different levels. But it's a $9.50 increase at any court level.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Raikes.

SENATOR RAIKES: Okay. One other question for Senator Brashear. You said that different courts have different fees. You mean they have different fees...amounts that they currently charge?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Yes, that's what I mean. I don't have a
